GENERAL INFORMATION:

The camp will be held for K-8 (as well as incoming Freshman) students at Seneca High School in Tabernacle, NJ. The session will run four consecutive days if weather permits, June 28th-July 1st. Times will be from 9:00 am to 1:30 pm. Each camper should be dropped off at 8:45 am and be picked up no later than 1:45 pm. There will be a lunch break during the session. Each camper should bring a lunch and water bottle.

BAD WEATHER:

In case of bad weather, you can go to our twitter page: @SENbaseballECA to find schedule changes. The times may be delayed for facility use depending on the day.

EQUIPMENT REQUIRED:

Each camper should wear sweatpants or baseball pants during the sessions. Each camper should bring sneakers for indoor use and cleats for outdoor use. In addition, an athletic supporter would be recommended. Each camper should also wear a hat during each session. Bats and gloves will not be provided. Catchers must provide their own equipment. Campers who are not properly equipped will not be allowed to participate.

COST:

There will be a non-refundable fee of $125.00 for each camper ($200.00 total for two children from same household). This fee will include a camp t-shirt and instruction. Walk-up registrations are also welcome.

OTHER INFORMATION:

Neither the camp nor the staff are held responsible for lost items.
